

Little Miracles

Hydrate and protect skin from the harmful UV rays this summer.

Get instantly brighter and younger looking skin at home with Murad's new Intensive-C Radiance Peel. Combating environmentally damaged skin, this easy-to-use peel treats skin in one easy step to help target and correct hyperpigmentation and boost radiance and clarity. With a powerful combination of Glycolic Acid and Vitamin C, skin appears smoother, brighter and more hydrated in no time.

Further quench skin's thirst with Chanel's new Hydra Beauty Eye Gel. Combining Camellia and Blue Ginger from Madagascar, this cooling eye gel provides natural hydration, while helping to prevent dark circles and fine lines from forming.

The brand's Daily Complete UV Protection is a must every day to protect skin all year round - not only in the summer sun. Skin is protected from the inside and out with the complex formula acting as a strong barrier against sun damage, surrounding pollutants and free radicals.

Make the most of your at home pampering session by setting the mood and taking the time out to relax completely. London brand Timothy Dunn offers a wide range of luxury candles in an array of sensual scents.

With Sienna Miller and Kate Moss fans of these heavy, glass beauties whisk your mind to a tropical paradise with the brand new Azure candle which has been inspired by the exotic Maldives' Islands.
